PERSONAL PROJECTS

LPU-Database (12/2019 - 12/2019)

- A C++ Program that stores the section details of students using file handling and users can interact with program to manipulate the data. It will help students to find Section Mentor, HOD, Course Coordinator, Placement Mentor, Class Representative, E-Cell Coordinator, Placement Coordinator.

Tic-Tac-Toe Game (04/2020 - 04/2020)

- I implemented it in C++ language Tic-tac-toe is a simple, two-player game that, if played optimally by both players, will always result in a tie. The game is also called noughts and crosses or Xs and Os. Later on I will do some changes by using headerfiles of C++ so that a single Player can play with computer.

Password Generator (04/2021 - 04/2021)

- A python project which generates a strong Password by taking length of password from user. I imported libraries like String, Random.

Corona Tracker App (05/2021 - 05/2021)

- A python project which uses API to track corona updates. I created a GUI using tkinter and API provides corona updates after every 10 minutes.

IPL-Data-Dashboard (12/2020 - 12/2020)

- IPL Data Dashboard IPL is a popular cricket series played annually in India since 2007. So, we have generated a lot of data since then which helps in prediction of the future performances of teams and players. I have analysed the data which covers the various objectives by using MS-Excel.

iTalktive Live Chat App (05/2021 - Present)

- Rightnow I am working on a live chat app which uses HTML, CSS, Java Script for frontend and mainly I am working on Socket.io . The io object emits events and listens to events.
